

Simply Quizzical

1. Fish is usually paired with light bodied white and rosé wines.

- a. True b. False

2. To qualify to use the Iowa Quality Wine Consortium seal, a wine must

- a. be either white or red.
 b. pass both a laboratory chemical analysis and a sensory evaluation.
 c. be made only from grapes grown in Iowa.
 d. win at least three awards in competitive judging.

3. All cheeses are best paired with dry white wines.

- a. True b. False

4. Grapes growing in Iowa require regular annual applications of Nitrogen.

- a. True b. False

5. The Tassel Ridge wines that best complement milk chocolate are

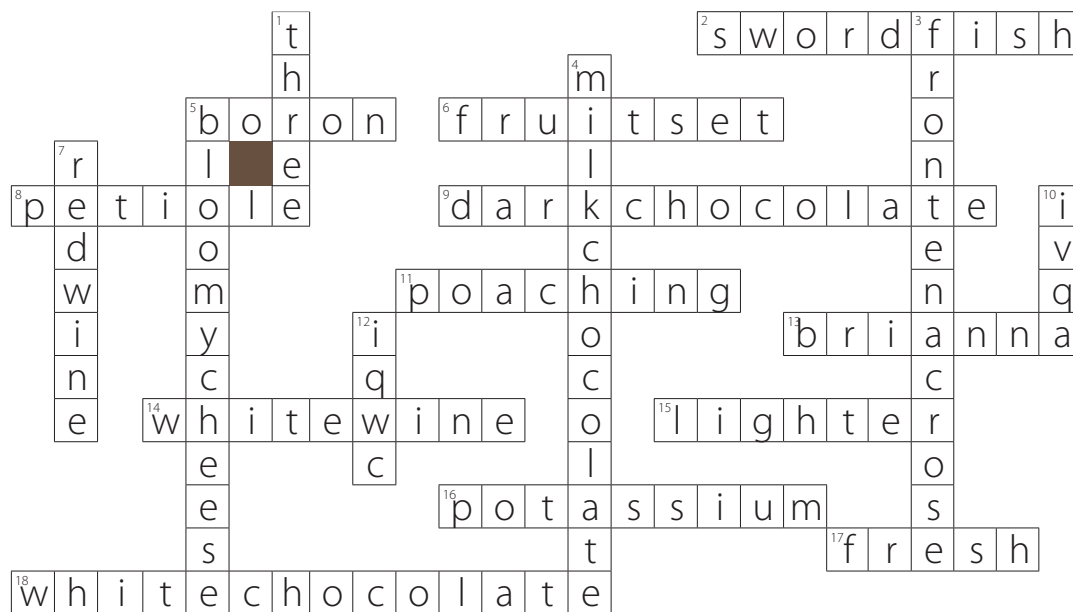

- a. In the Dark or American Syrah
 b. Finalé Iowa Red or Finalé Premier Red
 c. Iowa White Blossom or Iowa Brianna
 d. Cranberry or Oskyfizzante® Pink

6. How do we determine if grapevines are getting proper amounts of nutrients?

- a. We taste the wine made from their grapes for balance and sweetness.
 b. We look carefully at the vines to make sure the leaves are all green.
 c. We take petiole samples about August 1 and have them analyzed.
 d. We count the number of grape clusters to determine if the vines are healthy.

The Extraordinary

CROSSWORD

Across

- 2 a type of fish that is perfect for grilling 5 a micronutrient found in soil
 6 time when nitrogen should be applied 8 small stem that attaches the leaf to the shoot 9 pairs well with dry reds & sweet dessert wines 11 a method of cooking that simmers food in liquid 13 halibut pairs well with this dry wine 14 pairs well with soft cheeses
 15 pair lighter chocolates with _____ wines 16 a macronutrient necessary for good vine growth 17 cheese that is soft in texture and easy to spread 18 pairs well with sweet white wines

Down

- 1 the number of bottles per variety submitted for the IQWC program 3 a semi sweet wine that pairs well with tuna
 4 pairs well with sweet, fruity, and sparkling wines
 5 rich creamy cheese with a soft rind
 7 pairs well with hard cheese 10 the IQWC was formally known as this 12 the round sticker on our wines is certified by this